2. Defendant Timothy Renihan of the Seattle Police Department was in charge of falsifying official Police reports pertaining to Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty which caused him to go to jail with no probable cause according to his own police bulletin that he prepared himself, and after MR. Canty was released from King County Correctional facility on November 29th 2016, this bulletin caused MR. Canty to also be red flagged in the NCIC data base, and all the Seattle Police department officers to target MR. Canty, thus is why MR. Canty found himself back in King County

Correctional facility three weeks later on more frivolous charges against the Seattle Police Department and its officers, it's odd that every time MR. Canty gets arrested here in the City of Seattle the victim is the Seattle Police department and it's officers.

3. amended Complaint that was served upon all defendants, notified internal affairs of the Seattle Police Department face to face and in writing the internal affairs police officers of this office made up not true statements about the Plaintiff and closed the internal affairs investigation on their own officers. days later the Plaintiff was arrested for allegedly felony harassing the Seattle Police Department and it's officers, State of Washington vs. Kyle Canty Cause No. 16-1-03103-6 SEA, Case Dismissed With Prejudice, thus based upon MR. Canty notifying in writing plus face to face in person (b) Temporary Restraining Order should be issued without any further notices, all efforts have been made to these scumbags.

5. The Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty's injuries are loss of liberty, Pain, Suffering, emotional distress, extensive personal property loss, extreme fear, intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligence, Assault and Battery, False imprisonment, these injuries are irreparable, MR.
